

Problem Statement

The community at Mangaung is known to have a rich diversity in terms of dance performances, which showcase their cultural identity. However, the availability of this cultural information in a readily available format, especially in a digital format, is limited. This has caused a lack of awareness regarding this cultural information in the young generation. Hence, the aim of this project is to conduct research on dance performances and develop a digital platform to showcase the information.